Local Business Owner is the First Woman in Club's 70 year History Elected as Paso Robles Lions Club President

PASO ROBLES, Calif. (July 29, 2010)--The Paso Robles Lions Club is proud to announce the election of a new addition to their leadership board: Angela Robinson (also known as Angel) was recently elected by her fellow Lions to serve as President for the 2010-2011 year.

Robinson, who is the owner of AR & Company PR & Marketing, located in downtown Paso Robles, was the second woman to join the club when she became a member in 2007. Since then, she has become an exceptionally active club member.

Robinson has served as the Chair of the Annual Student Speakers Contest since 2008. As Chair, Robinson coordinates all aspects of the event, from promoting it at the high school, to encouraging student participation, to recruiting volunteer judges. The 2009 Contest had the greatest student participation in history, and Paso Robles Mayor Duane Picanco said, "It was the best [Speakers] Contest I've ever seen." Robinson currently serves as the club photographer, aids in various fundraising efforts, participates in community clean-up events, helps with the Pioneer Day bean feed, and serves as the club's Public Relations Director. Additionally, she was voted 2008 Lion of the Year.

"I am excited to be the first female club President and I hope to continue to extend the spirit of Lions Club throughout the community," said Robinson.
